“ You will be missed by many, you had a big heart and would help anyone in need. I will never forget your generosity to me in leaving me money, buying me a car and I promised you before you leave this world that I would take care of your fur baby WeGe and that is a promise I kept. I know you are having a time of your life seeing our loved one again and walking hand in hand with Jesus. You have left us but gained much much more. I will see you again soon. A.C., there's so much to say about the good times we've had together, especially when you talked me into leaving the farm in 1956 and coming to Chicago to live with you. You got me my first job off the farm and taught me how to live a big city life. Without you I would not have met Judy and had the children and grands we have today... RIP Brother.
