

Ada Dittaugh

July 24, 1937 - October 2, 2009

Mrs. Ada Helen Dittaugh, of Malvern, died Friday at her home in Malvern. She had been in poor health for the past six months.

Mrs. Dittaugh was born in Palestine, Arkansas, and was the daughter of Howard Halbert and Beatrice Phillips Halbert. She was retired from Kroger's and was a member of the Palestine Church of Christ.

Mrs. Dittaugh is survived by her husband of fifty-four years, Edward Dittaugh Jr., a daughter, Pam Harper and husband, Robert Sr., of Malvern, two sons; Danny Dittaugh of Jackson, Tennessee, and James Dittaugh and wife, Stephanie, of Jacksonville, Florida, three grandsons; Bob Harper Jr., of Byhalia, Mississippi, Michael Dittaugh and Brandon Dittaugh both of Jackson, Tennessee, three great-grandchildren; Tara Harper, Jared Harper, and Mckayla Dittaugh. Two sisters; Barbara White of Palestine, and Brenda White of Hernando, Mississippi.

Services for Mrs. Dittaugh will be held Graveside, 10:00 A.M., Monday at Barnishaw Cemetery. Visitation will be Sunday evening, 6:00 till 8:00 P.M., at Stevens Funeral Home with Stevens Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. You may log on to stevensfuneralhome.net for the on line registry.