“ I loved Aunt Alice dearly. I was her first niece. She was so kind and loving. I will always remember how she loved the CD's that Bob made. She thought he sounded like Elvis. She is now an angel in Heaven with her other brothers and sisters. She was a beautiful person and kind to all. My deepest sympathy to her children and grandchildren. The song Amazing Grace, reminds me of Aunt Alice! Love you forever! Ann Singer Robinson Bowman.

“ So sorry for your loss.
Alice was a nursery worker for my three grandchildren at First Baptist Church, Taylor, Toby and Sierra Snackenberg. She loved them. They knew it. They Always wanted to go into the Nursery because of Alice and Joyce. I am so thankful for Alice's ministry. She was always there waiting. What a blessing. Loved you Alice Adams.
