“ I'm so very sorry for your loss...I went to school with Alma, and grew up with her. I remember lots of fun and laughter with her, and thought she was a very sweet girl. although, I had not seen her for numerous years, I did get to visit a few moments with her at the Palestine Festival this past October. I just wanted to pay tribute by sharing. Again, prayers sent to the family.

“ To Alma's family and loved ones.... know that she will be greatly missed. I shall think of her fondly as I always have. Not only did she welcome me with open arms into the family all those many years ago, but she continued to cherish that bond between us as I did even after my mom and Lanny divorced. She will always hold a special place in my heart.

Rest peacefully sweet Alma. My your light shine forever down on us from the stars above. Sleep my friend. Sleep in heavenly peace.

Love,
