“ Ann was such a sweetheart and from the first time we met, I felt like I'd know her all my life. She always asked after my family - she was so considerate and cared so much for others. I'll miss our telephone chats and laughs. Shelby, I think and you and your family often and send you love and peace.

“ Ann was more than a sister-in-law. She was the sister us Wright boys didn't have. Although we have several sister-in-laws, Ann was the first. I was 9 when she and Shelby were married. Just to put a little humor my brother Sherman and I, Sherman a year and half younger were hiding on the stairs the first time Shelby and Ann came to the house as husband and wife. After the conversation with our mom and dad we came down. We got ready for bed Shelby says you better come kiss your sister-in-law good night. Of course we didn't believe them. So the next morning we went down and politely asked to see the marriage license. And so it began a life with a Sister. Not only a Sister but a very best friend. We love and miss you every day. I know my Dad, Mom and your Dad and Mom, Scott and our three brothers that preceded you are rejoicing with you.

“ Ann was a very very nice lady. First time we met in Branson, she was so out going and friendly, treated us just like family, even though we had just met. When my husband got sick, her & Shelby called to see how he was. Sweet sincere people. She loved her family deeply. Praying her memory in your hearts will keep you strong.
