“ Mrs. Lindsey and Family,

Louis shared with me the sad news of your husband, father, and grandfather's passing. I was greatly saddened by this news and at the same time lifted by the knowledge that he has found that peace which passeth all understanding. I want you all to know just how much I respected Mr. Lindsey and how highly I hold my esteem for Mr. Lindsey and for you, his family. He was an intelligent, kind, and caring man and those qualities were and are reflected in his life, in his family, and in the community where he was born and raised. My sincerest sympathies to all of you! I am praying that God will lift the burden that you carry at this time.

Warm personal regards,

David A. Danehower

“ Dear Mary Jo and family, I was so sad to hear that Billy had passed away. When I called to tell Lynn, she started crying. When I asked her if she was ok, all she could say was, "There must have been a GREAT Reunion in Heaven. That gives me so much comfort. To know that Billy is at peace and no longer in pain. When Mother died that was what keep me going. She so much did not want to leave us, but she also so much wanted to be at Home with the Lord.

I have such fond memories of seeing you, Billy and your children at parades in Marianna and Forrest City when we were kids. I will never forget the visits I would make with Mother to visit with you and Billy. Especially in the spring time when all the Daffodills were blooming around the pond and the house. He gave Mother some of the bulbs from Grandma Lindsey's house and she was soooooo proud to get them. She planted them in a beautiful flower bed in Lynn's back yard. I have already claimed them if Lynn ever sells her house.

I just want you all to know that I love you all and will be praying for the Lord to give you peace and understanding through this difficult time. Please know that you can call on me anytime and I will be there if at all possible. Love you all, Libby
