“ Ashley I am so sorry for your loss of your two children. You and your family are in my prayers .Please know that your children will always be with you and your family although not in physical form they are with you in your hearts and memories ,As it is hard now to imagine them not here with you remember that they are now watching from a grand place up above and that they will now be ever present in your dreams and memories so cherish the time you did have with them and hold your memories near ,for through the memories of days gone by is where your children dwell within your heart and in your soul.
