“ I am so sorry to hear this sad news. Carl was a good friend of mine while he was in Longview, TX. In fact we were roommates of sort for a short time. There was never a more fun loving individual and always willing to lend a hand to someone in need. I have thought of him often through the years but could never find a number to reach him. Carl was very special to me. In fact, he introduced me to my 3rd husband. (But I forgave him for that. Haha).
