“ I don't remember a time when Carol was not in my life! She was my best friends mother, the backbone of our church, our organist, our choir director and the architect of a quartet of the most talented young men in West Memphis, musically and otherwise. I still carry a small piece of Carol's emotional DNA. She was a significant part of the tapestry of my childhood that continues to shape who I am today. Special condolences to Rob, Rich, David and Jim!
