“*Brother "Buddy" has always been a great source of reliable information for me. I remember him giving me information I needed on gardening, chicken raising, moving an old building, or anything else. He was one who had done just about everything and was more than happy to help in anything you were trying to do. A fine Christian man! He loved people. I will miss him. So thankful to know that we will see him again one day in our eternal home!
Gos is good all the time all the time God is good!
My prayers and thoughts go out to the family.
