“ What fun memories of Charlie; we never had a dull moment when he was involved. Our trip to Mexico with Charlie, Christy, Rush and Brad were some of the best memories of our lives. RIP

Christy and family, our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ *Christy,
I was so sorry to hear of Charlie's passing. I have such fond memories of being involved in Forrest City Little Theater, and babysitting your boys on occasion when they were little. My heart goes out to you all.

“ I'm always bragging about what goes on at Graham Memorial Presbyterian church. Older black people would tell me Mr. Charlie is prejudice & think he is tuff. We attend Church every Sunday talking about the Lord & we are saved. Yet we still live in the slavery days, Get over it. Neither race is going anywhere!!!! The thing about it is that God can change anyone heart. I never felt any prejudice from Charlie. I teach my kids get to know people for yourselves don't let anyone tell you anything about know one. Charlie came and worked with young black kids daily until he got sick and the kids loved him and the younger kids wanted to sit in his lap & read to him. God bless you & thanks I pray that I didn't offend anyone I will miss him sitting behind us in Church.

“ Charles and I became friends in the 6th grade and we both worked at the Times Herald delivering papers...His home became by home...We use to eat sugar cookies with potted meat on them...And it was great, we were in the Boy Scouts together troop 110...Our saying was, one ten fall in, or eleven O lets go! He was a very good friend and sorry to see him go! My prayers are with the family!

“ I don't know how many times Charlie would leave a sack hanging on the office door knob with a note to call as soon as the ham, beans and greens that he had picked were ready for lunch! Prayers for all the family in the days ahead.
