“ Jason, James and Jennifer - I have a lot of memories of your Dad - I worked with him here in FC for several years - there were so many stories he told about Claudia and you kids I almost came to know you. In recent years I would run into your Mom in Walmart and stop and chat. She would show pictures of the grandchildren and give a little update on your lives. She and Jack seemed to be made for one another. I remember so many things your Dad said - especially about taking the opposite side so he could keep the world in balance, among other things. I hate I have been so late in hearing of your mother's passing and missed the funeral. May God grant you comfort in the many memories of your family happy times.

“ James, Jennifer, and Jason, Ron and I have many fond memories of your dad and mom. Your mom and I used to spend many hours over the years visiting. I think we all enjoyed the neighborhood fish fries at your home. Your mom was gracious to have us over, but she enjoyed catching those fish too. I am glad I talked with her earlier in the year.
Of course, I wish I had called more.

Our deepest sympathy to all you and all of her family. May God comfort and strengthen you and give you His wisdom and peace.

“ I just heard of Mrs.Ming's passing. I spent many days at her home, when I was younger. She was always such a wonderful lady, who had a great sense of humor and was kind and thoughtful. My sincerest condolences to Jennifer, James and Jason, on your mother's passing.
