“ I spent many a day and night at Cleo's house when we were growing up. We lived two doors down the street. He was like a big brother to me. I have many fond memories of him, his Mother and aunts. May our Father in Heaven have a special place for him.

“ Mary Etta, C.C., Joe, & Families,

We just wanted to send our condolences, and let you know how fond we were of your Dad. He was a "Great Guy" in every sense of the word. It was a pleasure to know him both on the golf course and everywhere else that our paths crossed.

May the Lord continue to Bless you and give you strength. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.
