“ I first met this young man about a month ago at Crestpark in Forrest City. He was with someone working on the facility's air conditioner. He had on a CBC cap that caught my attention so I stopped and asked him if he went to school there because my daughters boyfriend Jonathan Estes would be going there this fall to play baseball and that's when he told me he played baseball at CBC. He also knew Jonathan and knew they would be playing together. He was such a polite young man. I am so sorry for your loss. Talking to him that day I knew he was a good kid.

“ Cody was absolutely precious to our family. He came into our lives last year as a teammate of my son's at CBC. He quickly became "one of ours"....and was a loyal best friend to our Sam. We are devastated by losing such a sweet, sweet soul, who shined the Light of Christ, wherever he went. Cody will always remain present in our hearts. We are covering all who knew and loved him in our prayers, and are seeking the supernatural comfort that only our Lord can provide. Much love, Terri Baker
