“ Dena Faye rode my grandmother’s (Mrs. Chalk) school bus. We were childhood friends. Her parents and my grandparents were long time friends. My fondest memories are of Dena Faye and I “playing” Barbies, even though I was five and she was twelve. Dena Faye was a wonderful woman and I am so thankful to have known her. Rest well my friend. Dena was essentially my mother. Technically my grandmother but she was my rock and any time I needed someone to talk to she was there. I don't know what i will do now that she is gone. I love you grandma.
