“ Donald loved his family and always wanted more family times together. When growing up he was the one who went over our report cards and made us strive to do better. He also would work hard in the fields to help pay for our books, clothes and other things we needed. He will be gone but not forgotten. He is rejoicing in heaven with so many loved ones. Sad day for the Baskins family! Love my big brother! Love you Mary

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Brother Donald. He was a wonderful man.
Even though we moved from Forrest City several years ago, I think about him and your family often. I pray the Lord will help you all through this time.
