“ Paul, Just wanted to pass on our deepest sympathy to you and your family. We understand what you are going through having lost all parents, grand parents, my only brother and even an infant daughter. It helps knowing that others are thinking and praying for you. The suffering has ended and your dad is at peace now sitting at the right hand of our father. We too often think how painful it is for us and we often forget the glory our loved ones receive in heaven.

May God Bless you and your family as you manage through this difficult time. My mother always told us that the Good Lord never gives you a cross to heavy to carry.

If there is anything we can do, please don't hesitate to ask.

Take care.
