“ I offer my heartfelt sympathy to all the family at this time of sorrow.

Frances and I always shared a special bond, because she was born on my fifth birthday. She was born at home and that same day Mama took me to see the baby. When we arrived, Lucy was on the bed and held the baby up toward me, asking, "Do you want her?" Frances was crying at the top of her (very strong) lungs, so I said "No!!" and hid behind Mama's skirt.
