“ On one of or trips to the doctors I got us lost on the freeway, I got all upset and daddy calmed me down. And I will always remember those cobblers man he could make one and I must have gained twenty pounds eating them with him. he keep them comming. I also eat my frist turnup with him and found out i like them. And he would give his grandbaby a dollor or quorters when he seen her or show her the ice cream. and he made sure there was always ice cream.
i love my dad very much and i will miss him
