“ Peggy, I was saddened this morning to see Gene's obituary in the newspaper and I want you to know that my thoughts are with you during this sad time. I have fond memories of Gene and Murray as we were growing up in Caldwell.-- they were always so nice to Henriella and me and were fun and made us laugh. As we moved to Caldwell as teenagers it was so important to be accepted by a good group of youth at Caldwell Baptist Church. My mind is flooded this morning with memories of those carefree days those many years ago.

“ Mrs. Peggy, Terry, Jane, Janet, Steve and families and many friends. I am so sorry to hear about Mr. Gene. I know my daddy probably greeted him when he entered the gates of Heaven. I know he touched many lives here on earth and we will all miss him. I know that I guess I've known Mr. Gene most of my life since I grew up in Caldwell and was a member of Caldwell Baptist Church. He and I shared the same birthday. I pray that God will be your source of comfort and will give you peace beyond all understanding. Y'all are in my thoughts and prayers...
