

George Clark,

July 2, 1954 - July 17, 2012

Mr. George Manuel Clark Jr., age 58, of Memphis, formerly of Forrest City, died Tuesday at his home in Memphis. His death came sudden and unexpected.

Mr. Clark was born July 2, 1954, in Forrest City, and was the son of George Clark Sr. and Virginia Stephens Clark. He lived in Forrest City until moving to Memphis, retired from FedEx in 2011, was a graduate of Forrest City High School and Arkansas State University, and was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Mr. Clark is survived by one daughter, Sarah Jane Clark of Memphis, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark Sr. of Hazen, three brothers; Larry Clark of Gainesville, Florida, Mark Clark, of Ft. Wayne, Indiana, and Barney Clark of West Memphis, his maternal grandmother, Minnie Stephens of Forrest City, and two grandchildren; Jazmine and Tony.

Services for Mr. Clark will be held at Stevens Funeral Home Chapel, 2:00 P.M., Saturday with burial in Forrest Park Cemetery. Visitation will be at Stevens Funeral Home, Saturday, beginning 12:00 until time of the service, with Stevens Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. You may log on to stevensfuneralhome.net for the on line registry.

“ I miss you daddy. Its just not the same without you. I hurt everyday. When I found you dead in your bed well I was so in shock and just thought it was all a nightmare. I was so scared. I never thought I would loose you. I miss all the good times together. Please daddy watch over me and your grandbabies while your up there in heaven. I love you and we will see each other again in heaven. I have to be strong. Hugs and butterfly kisses.....love your only daughter Sarah Jane...aka Peanut
