“ Christy, I am so sorry. Grant and I worked for two or three years at Helena Chemical when he first retired from farming. I can remember the day after he met you in the halls of, I think, Calvary Christian. He came into work the very next day telling me he had found the one. I have never seen anyone so full of life. Although our paths have crossed only a few times since then I always considered Grant a friend. My prayer is for God's peace and comfort to you, the kids, Mr. Earl Dean and the rest of the family. Sincerely
