“ *Many years ago, I found out I had a friend. She showed me how to throw a baseball, climb a tree, go swimming in a pond that Mom and Dad said not to do, and ride a bull. Oh yes she said I could do it, so what was I to do but get on. Wow what a ride, never tried that again. But all in all she taught her little brother about life. She was my best friend and no one messed with me when she was around. I wanted to say all this and more at her service, but the tears would not let me. Oh there are lots more stories about my Sister Helen I could tell. But now I just want to thank all the folks who wrote on this page and had a friendship with her, and also I wanted to say thank you to my sister, I love you and I'll miss my friend.
