

Helen Lee Long

January 10, 1930 - June 4, 2014

June 11, 2014

Mrs. Helen Lee Long, age 84, of Palestine, died Wednesday, June 4, at the Methodist Hospital in Memphis. She had been in the hospital for the past eight days.

Mrs. Long was born January 10, 1930, in Palestine, and was the daughter of Robert Lee Deaviser and Lelar Mae Bilbo Deaviser. She lived in Palestine most all of her life, was a housewife, and a member of the Midway Baptist Church.

Mrs. Long married Leevon Willis Long in 1948, and he preceded her in death in 2013. She is survived by two sons; Charles L. McGowan of Palestine and Kenneth C. Long Sr. of Metairie, Louisiana, two daughters; Mary Farrell and Nancy Halbert, both of Palestine, two brothers; Leo Deaviser of Palestine, and James Deaviser of Cordova, Tennessee, two sisters; Hazel Moore and Rosie Prince, both of Palestine, thirteen grandchildren and eighteen great-grandchildren. She had one son, Ronald E. Long who preceded her in death in 2012.

A memorial services will be held at Bell Cemetery, 10:00 A.M., Thursday with Stevens Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. You may log on to stevensfuneralhome.net for the on line registry.

Cemetery Details

Bell Cemetery

Palestine, AR 72372