

Imogene Fowler Thomas

February 9, 1937 - June 11, 2026

Imogene married Gilbert Thomas Jr May 10, 1954. They celebrated 61 years of marriage before his passing in 2016. After they married, they made their home at Fitzgerald Crossing, simply known to the family as The Crossing.

Since Imogene married into a farming family, she took her role as a farmer's wife seriously.

She stood by Gilbert, doing what was necessary to help him with a successful crop.

She was known to prepare full country meals and take them to the fields for Gilbert and the workers. In recognition of their dedication and hard work, they were honored as the Cross County Farm Family of the year 1991.

As an exceptional gardener, Imogene's deep love for plants led her to become a member of the Master Gardener program. She possessed a wealth of knowledge about various flowers and plants. And she took immense pride in tending to her flowers, transforming her yard into a beautiful showcase. She had a talent for the arts, especially ceramics and painting, Affectionately known as Hon to her family and other close friends, she
