“ Our love,prayers and condolences are extended to Brother Jim's wife Nancy and the rest of his family. Jim will be missed and memories of his life cherished by us. I, especially, will miss him as both a brother and a friend. Brother Jim was very helpful to me when I was called in to the ministry many years ago and surrendered to preach. I was burdened about the cost of study materials needed to help me dig deep in preparation to to serve God's in the ministry field. My prayers were answered in the form of my brother's love for the Lord and love for others like himself the Lord has called ministerial service. When Jim learned of my needs, he called me and simply said, "The Lord had laid it upon my heart to present you with my entire Gospel library of reference books, Bible collection, Greek, Hebrew, and Latin translations and other materials to aid you in your studies and service of the Father's Holy Word." Thanks Brother Jim. I will surely see you in heaven.
