“ I always loved to see James when he came to Birmingham. He was always happy and funny. He seemed more like an uncle to me because he and my Dad were more like brothers. I hate I did not get to see him these last few years but I will always have great memories of him. I saw the picture of the four of you on Facebook and I could not believe how much Bengy looked like James. All of you looked good but I could tell James was not in good health. I am so sorry for your lose and I will be praying for all of you.. Bobby Umphrey is planning a Morris Family reunion next March. It would be great to see all of you there. Love to all, Melissa Morris Wiseman

“ I have vivid memories of several Dooley holidays celebrated at Uncle Leon and Aunt Ginnie's house where the kids were sent upstairs to the atic to play....and Jim was one of the few adults brave enough to come up there with us! We were NEVER up to no good.....but he was just checking! Fun days with the cousins. Love and miss you all! E
