

James Clifford Morgan

December 19, 1948 - November 13, 2019

James Clifford Morgan, known better as Cliff, age 70, of Forrest City, passed away unexpectedly Wednesday, November 13, 2019. He was at his deer camp in North Central Arkansas with one of his dearest friends doing what he loved best when he was taken unexpectedly.

He served his country as a Marine proudly with honor in Vietnam. After completing his service, he began his long career as a packaging engineer and retired from FedEx after 20 years.

Cliff never met a stranger, only a friend he hadn't yet met. He had a quick wit and wasn't afraid to use it. He was devoted to his family and his friends, with whom he loved to spend time fishing and hunting.

He is survived by the love of his life, Linda Morgan, his beloved daughters; Sharon Adamson (Eddie) and Kim Morgan (Stephanie), his two precious grandsons; Nicholas (Samantha) and Noah Pickard, his brother, Lamar (Susanna) Morgan, and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his brothers; Cecil and Delbert Morgan.
