“ Will miss you Uncle Lawson. I have such wonderful memories of family gathering in my younger years. You were a caring and kind man. You are with your brother and sister now and that gives much comfort. Rest in peace. God's peace to those of us who are grieving and continued prayers to family and friends.

“ Lawson and i were friends for a long time. He and my brother, Walter, were the same age and I remember his coming to "spend the day" quite often when they were pre-teens. As an older brother, I was often in charge of whatever uncouth activity was underway.

If you asked me to describe Lawson with one word, I think it would be "cheerful". He was always someone I enjoyed being with.

Please accept my sincere condolences. We will all miss him.
