

Jimmie 'Papaw" Davis

August 9, 1944 - March 8, 2013

Mr. Jimmie Dwight "Papaw" Davis died Friday, March 8, 2013 at the White County Medical Center. He was born August 9, 1944. He was a member of Oak Hill Church of God in Forrest City. Recently Jimmie moved with his wife Sue to Bradford, Arkansas and started attending Velvet Ridge Church of God. He retired in 2010 from APAC. Jimmie loved to fish and work in the garden.

He was preceded in death by his parents Kellough and Lessie Davis, one sister Louise Bennett and his first born baby Jimmie Dwight Davis Jr. He is survived by his loving wife Sue Cagle Davis; three daughters, Angie Morrison and husband Dean, Cheryl Pollanen and husband Seppo and Tammy Davis Hill and husband Richard; two brothers, Jerry and Jackie Davis. Three grandchildren also survive him, John Wesley Gilbreath, Mary Katherine Gilbreath and Jimmie McClay Pollanen. He will be loved and missed greatly by his family and friends.

Services will be held Monday, March 11, 2013 at 10:00 a.m. at Stevens Funeral Home. Burial will follow at Bell Cemetery in Palestine. Visitation will be from 6 to 8 at the funeral home Sunday. Visit online registry at stevensfuneralhome.net. Under the direction of Stevens Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Mrs. Sue and the entire family. ”

Gloria Jones Christian - April 12, 2013 at 08:28 AM