

Jimmy Powers

April 12, 1941 - January 2, 2012

Mr. Jimmy Powers, age 70, of Marianna, died Monday at his friend's home in Widener. He had been in poor health for the past six months.

Mr. Powers was born April 12, 1941, in Forrest City, and was the son of James Powers and Betty Cornelieus Powers. He lived in Lee County and St. Francis County most all of his life, was retired from Airtherm, and was a member of the Central Baptist Church in Hughes.

Mr. Powers married Anita Brannon in 1980, and she survives him along with three sons; James Powers and Bruce Powers, both of Forrest City, and Gerald Powers of Jonesboro, two daughters; Tessa Kennedy of Colt and Janice Burns of Marianna, three step sons; Charles Fowler Jr. of Russellville, John Butler Jr. and Tommy Butler, both of Hughes, eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Services for Mr. Powers will be held Graveside, 10:30 A.M., Friday, with burial in Forrest Park Cemetery. Visitation will be Thursday evening, 6:00 till 8:00 P.M., at Stevens Funeral Home with Stevens Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. You may log on to stevensfuneralhome.net for the on line registry.

Tribute Wall

KF

“ I met Jimmy when he was staying with his son Buddy during his treatments. He was very out going person. He didn't let the treatments get him down. We all three went out to eat pizza and went to the fair. He would make laugh. I will always remember him for his out going personality.

Kevin Frye - April 12, 2013 at 08:29 AM

DM

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Sorry for your lose. May you be comforted by God's touch.

Doris Walls Malone - April 12, 2013 at 08:29 AM

MA

“ Anita I only learned of Jimmy's death this afternoon or i would have been at the funeral. I worked with Jimmy many years and always had the highest regards for him you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers during these tryng times Junior

Murlin Andrews - April 12, 2013 at 08:29 AM