“ My Daddy, Donald Clark, who owned Clark's Super Service, and who I lost in May of 2020, would always laugh and joke with Mr. Harbin, whenever he would come by during his work. The front office was always booming with laughter, whenever I would stop in and visit.

I'm certain that his family, too, will miss his big smile and great personality.

All of my love and prayers to them, for this great loss. Heaven is a much brighter place with he and my Daddy joking around, up there.
