“ I am sorry I could not be with the family through this time of grief but God knows why. When Mr. Killion came back from Texas he thanked me for the going away party. He said people told him that they loved him that he didn't know they even liked him. I could not imagine anybody not liking him. He got his wish and didn't have to leave Forrest City until he went to Heaven. Glenda

“ *To The Killon Family,
Please know that the comforter is with your family, but there is a comfort to know what a celebration is going on in heaven.
Bro.Killon was a man of God. His life was message for all men to follow,not perfect I'm sure but from the time I was little there where few men I knew that I could see that followed Christ but he was one.
