“ Thinking of you and your family constantly, Susan. You have had an unimaginable year, and my heart holds so many things I want to convey to you. The mayor has asked that all of the Forrest City neighborhoods have someone be outside at 4:30 pm today, to pray for our community. As an Episcopalian, we don't pray out loud very often, except in church services, but I plan to go stand on your and Johnny's corner, next to his Washington Hawthorne tree, and pray for you and the community. I can only imagine the reunion between him and Josh. Virtual hugs. Needie Rountree
