“ Larry, Lonnie and Family: Our Hearts are broken to know that Aunt Louise is no longer with us. She was so PRECIOUS to Cary and I. Cary often spoke of the fond times he spent at Aunt Louise and Uncle Bernard's home. Everyone was so surprised the day Cary and I got married Uncle Bernard was there. Oh, how we will miss her. She was so SPECIAL TO US. She gave the best hugs. Please know, you all are in our prayers in the days to come as you go through this time. We loved her and she will never be forgotten.
Love, Cary and Nancy Jayroe ❤️

“ My deepest sympathy goes out the Tracy family and the Jayroe family. I am the eldest granddaughter of the Jayroe family and I loved to visit Aunt Louise when we would go on vacation to Forrest City, AR for summer vacation. My mother was Margaret Singer. I am Ann Singer Robinson Bowman. Aunt Louise was always happy, and I loved to hear about her growing up to be a teenager. She has two wonderful sons who took very good care of her. I send healing prayers to her family.

“ To The Family Of Louise Tracy:
My Heartfelt Condolences I sure enjoyed working with this Special Lady at Walmart. I will always remember all the laughter and good times along with that beautiful smile she carried with her everywhere she went. What a Wonderful Person that Blessed so many lives. She just made Heaven a much Brighter place. May God's Love bring each of you much Peace.
Love,
