“ Charlie and I always enjoyed Ken when we saw him. He asked Charlie several times about how to fix some of his equipment. The next time Ken saw Charlie, he would say you were right. They had a good relationship. Our sincere condolences to the family, especially Kyle, who was our banker and is our friend.

Cathy, I loved Kenneth and I love Roger and Nita. I'm so grateful for having gone to church with them very, very early in my life for a few years. I'm so thankful all three were there for me as I walked to their house (a long way away from my mother) to catch the bus for school my first few years. I looked up to this family as they served The Lord and lived good very decent lives. I will miss Kenneth very much, but we will see him again in glory. Praying for all of you. Susan Clark Smith
