“ I never thought I would loose the love of my life this soon. What I would give to feel your arms around me right now! You left me with so many good memories and the only bad one I have was Monday June 13th at 6:24AM! I know you are at peace and I know you will always be watching over me and boys! You done a great job at molding them to take over when they had too. I know you are proud of them as am !!! Them and knowing we will be reunited one day is the only thing that makes me put one foot in front the other. And they also are gonna keep your little brother going forward because they knew how important that was to you. Intill we meet again, I love you babe!! ❤️❤️❤️
