“ Joann and Leslie, Aaron and I are so sorry for your loss. To lose one family member in a life is tragic, two is all but unbearable. I do know God helps us when we think we cannot make it; at least I have found that to be true. Aaron thinks Larry was the best boss he ever knew and that he was a kind good man. I concur with that. Larry always had a smile and a caring question about how Aaron and I were making it. We will keep you in our thoughts and prayers in the days ahead.

“Joanne, I was shocked to see Larry's obit today. The first thing I thought about is that the first person he saw in heaven was Jody. I'm sure she met him at the gate. I'm sure he has seen Frank by now also. I know we just can't understand everything down here, but, praise the Lord, we will understand it all one day. If you haven't read "90 Minutes in Heaven," I recommend you do. You can't be sad for anyone who is in heaven, but our sadness is that we miss them so down here. My dealings with Larry were only as a customer at Sears, but from that relationship, he always was a fine person. My deepest sympathy to you. You will be in my prayers.
