“ Ann and family, I am so sorry to hear that Larry has passed away. We never know when it will be our time to go but at least you know he was prepared and is now he is with Harold and his Dad. The days ahead will be long and hard but I hope and pray you can lean on the love you shared to help you make it through. There are so many that do not have that but I know you and Larry did. I will keep you all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Ann, words cannot express the sadness we feel right now about Larry's passing. No one is ever ready for this no matter how prepared you think you are. He was just as sweet ad kind as could be and I am sure he was a wonderful husband as well. I know for a fact he and Harold will be fishing together soon. I don't think there was ever a day he would pass that up. Many a visit to Destrehan would find Harold, Darrell and Larry in the boat somewhere fishin, and boy they would bring home a mess of them too! Our condolences to Brandy, Hilman, Doug, Jessica and all the grandkids. We love ya'll, stay strong. He will be missed by all who knew him.
