“ To all the Smith family: Mary Ann & I are so very sorry for your loss of Larry. We know and understand the great void death can leave in our lives. We also know that words can never be enough to give you all the comfort you need. You all know us and know that if there is ever anything we can DO just let us know, PLEASE. But in the meantime, keep God in your hearts because that is really the only place comfort can be found. We are truly sorry.
