

Leonard S. Silski ,

October 23, 1923 - December 30, 2011

Mr. Leonard S. Silski Sr., age 88, of Forrest City, died Friday at his home in Forrest City. He had been in poor health for the past several months.

Mr. Silski was born October 23, 1923, in Chicago, Illinois, and was the son of Frank Silski and Veronica Gosolovich Silski. He lived in Forrest City since 1984 and was a machinist for the Tool & Die Company in Illinois.

Mr. Silski married Grace Darling and she preceded him in death in 2007. He is survived by three sons; Leonard G. Silski Jr. of Caldwell, Richard S. Silski of Wisconsin, and David R. Silski of Forrest City, two daughters; Diane M. Lenz of Wisconsin and Kathy Silski Bricker of Forrest City, one brother, George Frank Silski of Chicago, five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Mr. Silski's wishes were to be cremated. Stevens Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements. You may log on to stevensfuneralhome.net for the on line registry.

Tribute Wall

DC

“ Mr. Silski reminded me of my family... He was from the same area in Chicago my parents were from... he talked the same stores my mother told.. he made me feel like home when we talked he will be greatly missed here...

Diane and Jim Cox - April 12, 2013 at 08:29 AM

KB

“ my father was the kind of father i would wish for every daughter to have. I have so many memories that i cherish. dad i know u loved me know matter what i did, You live through me now and thats where you'll stay forever in my heart.

kathy silski bricker - April 12, 2013 at 08:29 AM

KB

“ my dad loved his family,he was very sentimental he played the harmonica and could share a good story.He cooked a wonderful meal for the holidays,the gravy and dressing I'll never forget. Well, if you new my dad then u know that he was a very kind soul.

kathy silski bricker - April 12, 2013 at 08:29 AM

TM

“ Mr. Silski was a great man. He was a real comedian, he could always make u laugh even on ur worst day. I guess thts where his loving daughter Kathy got it from. I no hes n a better place rite beside his wife, sitting back a stareing at wht a great job they did at life while they were here. Say hi 2 jesus 4 me man. Mayb we'll cross paths again 1 day. U will b missed.....'(RIP

The Mathes' - April 12, 2013 at 08:29 AM

MR

“ sorry for your daddy but he's up there with momma .there lookin down on you and our prayers are with you

melanie ragan - April 12, 2013 at 08:29 AM