“ For years, our family lived on Sherwood Drive, just down from the Ward family. There was never a better Christian man that Mr.Leroy. He was good to our family during the loss of our Dad and later our Mom.
From my sister Diane and myself we express our condolences to the family of this great man.

“ Leroy Ward was a good man. I remember him well from growing up in Landmark Baptist Church. He and my dad were both Deacons. Leroy loved music; I am certain he is singing in the heavenly choir as I write this Tribute. I am very sure his wives and family are rejoicing in the reunion. God Bless his family, especially his daughter Becky. Becky I remember your family well; I pray for your family's comfort knowing your dad is with the Lord. Brenda Kidd Sage
