“ Mom, I miss you so much. I cherish the memories of you, over fifty years. I especially cherish the times we all played Mexican Canasta in the community room, you and Mike playing against me and Uncle Junior. Good times Lexee graduated high school Sunday, I felt your presence at the ceremony. One last child to go, Rayne.

“ I sure do miss you Mom, more than you ever imagined. Not a day goes by that I don't think about you. Sometimes I smile, lots of times I cry. Then, when I get through being selfish, I am thankful that you are with the Lord, with no more pain, running around on streets of gold. And I know I will see you again one day. Until then you are forever in my heart.

“ It was my honor to help in the care of Linda the last year and a half, even if only 2 nights a week. We had a lot of laughs. I got pretty attached to her and will miss her.
