“ There are no words to express how very sorry Maddie and I are for the loss that all of you feel during this terribly sad time. Logan meant something special to each and every one of you. Our thoughts and prayers are with you always. I’m gonna share my last memory of Logan, which was just weeks ago right before we lost Mark. I was in the house with Mark, and I heard laughter from out back in my pool. I opened my back door to see Logan sitting on my deck talking with my cousin Justin, who had brought some young ones to swim. He asked me about Mark, and we went to sit on my front porch together for a couple of hours just to talk. The last thing I did when he said that he had to go was give him a hug and tell him that I loved him, and as with all of you, he knew that and said “I Love You Too” I will always be grateful for that surprise visit. Take some comfort in knowing that there are those that have gone before him waiting with open arms and love. I hope Austin and him are giving heaven a little hell right now.
Love Always,
Mark, Kathie, Maddie & Austin
