“ Sometimes you feel like you are being repetitive when you posted on memories of a deceased person and you use words like beautiful, sweet, kind hearted and special friend. Mrs. Lois was all of the above and so much more. Vicky and I lived next to her on Walnut Drive until we moved in 1983. She was more than just neighbor but a special friend. We watched Ruth and Belinda grow up and since our children were so very young, her advice was so needed and appreciated. Mrs. Lois and I had worked together at Harts Bread. She and Mrs. Adams managed the thrift store for years and they were both hard workers and there was never a dull moment. I don't know how many times those ladies gave me a big hug at the end of a frustrating day. So Mrs. Lois was a neighbor, co-worker, friend and a loved one. Only our memories can now replace her. She is truly an Angel in Heaven

Jerry, I appreciate your sweet memories of Mother. She loved you and all you Hart's Bread Guys! She'd go the extra mile with a smile on her face, just to make someone's eyes day better. She lived a wonderful Christian Life. That's my comfort knowing that she is now in perfect health, walking the streets of Gold! Thank you for your comment. It sure meant a lot to me. Love, My Angel & Belinda ❤️🙏❤️
