“ Ann has been a big part of my family all my life. I remember her infectious laugh and how she would always look at me with that look and say, “Now Cindy Bliss”! I will miss our conversations around the table while drinking coffee. She loved to always have her hair, makeup, & nails done and was always so pretty. She loved God and talking about the Bible and her faith as a Christian. Holidays and family gatherings will never be the same-there will be another empty place at the table.

“ Ann was a Facebook friend of mine. I did not know her personally but knew her mother Eva Lou and her Parker family. I am so sorry for family. May God bless all.
