“ Mr Adams was a wonderful man. He lived his life as a Christian based on hard work, honesty and compassion. He always asked about my family and invited to come by and see him anytime. I will miss seeing him out working in his beautiful garden. I am thankful I had the privilege of calling him my friend. ”

“ Would stop and visit Lowell and Elizabeth from time to time after Berlon and Hoopie went home. Loved to sit around and just listen to his stories about the war, old times fishing and hunting and Jesus. I would listen a whole lot more than talk. They always had an open door and with every visit would learn something new. We always left smiling just having enjoyed the things they had seen together. Will really miss him but him and Elizabeth will always be a part of mine and Dede's life. First thing I thought after I heard the news was that Berlon and Hoopie would be there to welcome him home. What a day that will be when my Jesus I shall see. He was a really special man and had a really special impact on all who had the privilege of calling him friend.
