“ I read in the paper about your mother. I am sorry to hear of your loss. May you look to God, family and friends for comfort and strength. I hope you are like me and will have wonderful memories of the good times. "Death leaves a loss that no one can heal, but love and memories: no one can steal". Your neighbor, Sherry Harvey

“ Bryan and family.
I was so sorry to hear about your dear Mother's passing away. My heart goes out to you, for I know how much she loved you and was so proud of you. I didn't really know your other sisters and brothers, but please extend my sympathy to them also, as I know, how very, very hard it is to let your dear mother go.
She will always be a very big part of you and you'll always hold her in your heart.
My Mom & Daddy and even me, on occasion, enjoyed talking with your Mom. She was such a enjoyable spirit to converse with. And my dad, George, thought the world of her.
It is so wonderful to know that today, she walks the shores of Eternity with her loved ones and mine as well. And someday, Bryan, she'll be there waiting, with open arms to welcome you home, for all Eternity.
God bless you and your family.
My heart grieves with you, for I have experienced this pain.
May our Father God hold you close and comfort you and give you peace in your heart and soul and strength for each day as it comes.
In love & prayer,
Anita (Acklin) Seaman
