“ I am just learning of Marlin's untimely passing, and my heart breaks to hear of his loss. Marlin and I went to the University of Southern Mississippi together. For as long as I live, I will never forget my first encounter with him, or the friendship that developed soon after.

He was a significant part of my college years. Although we did not keep in touch much after we both left Hattiesburg, I thought of him occasionally. The last time I saw him I accidentally bumped into him at the Memphis airport with now must have been a year or two before his passing. He was still the same Marlin, still able to bring a smile to my face and eventually draw a laugh from my soul. He will always be remembered.

My sincerest condolences to his son, Renford and family.

“ I just want to let Marlin's family and friends, especially Ren, know that you are in my prayers. I met Marlin at USM in '97, and met a special man. He was always so funny, and so sweet! And he truly loved Ren, and was always looking out for him. We lost contact over the years, but he was never forgotten. I pray his family finds peace, and know he is going to continue to look over them. With love, Holli

“ I am shocked to have just found out that this world has lost a beautiful man. I was deployed to Iraq unfortunately. You are all in my prayers. If you could please tell Rennie Harris that I am truly sadden by the loss of his brother. Marlin loved Rennie and only wanted the best for him. I dated Marlin many years ago and knew their mother, Mrs. Mildred and their beautiful little sister, Georgia. I remember the day Marlin shared with me that he had lost his mother and sister to a terrible crime. I know he truly loved them both. Please send my condolences to the Harris Family and Friends.

“ Though the outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. /that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

To the family, though I never meet Marlin in person, I heard so much about him and my heart cries out for him. Life is yet so short, that's why we must work while it's day, because when night comes no man shall work. May God forever be a Blessing in your lives.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Harris family. Marlin was a very special young man. I just saw him very recently at Bluff City Land Rover. Not only was he a great customer to deal with but a very sweet person. I always enjoyed my visits with him. My heart aches for the family. You have suffered a great loss. Marlin will always be watching over you from above. You all will be in my prayers.
