“ I am Glenda Jackson Zambroni, I went to school and was a friend of Martha's sister Barbara, that is how I met Martha, she was a very sweet and smart lady and we became friends, she, Barbara and I had great times hanging out and I spent many nights with them. Martha was our guardian angel, she always looked out for us, she strictly would put us in our place if we did wrong, Lol. We became Facebook friends last year, and was glad to hear from her again, it saddens me to hear about her passing...her family and friends are in my prayers.

“ Martha was a very nice and sweet person, I went to school with her and church and even lived in the same area as her and of course when we moved from there we lost contact, but we reemet a couple of years ago at my daughter's house (Carol Dainels), and Martha was still the same sweet Martha that I knew many years ago. RIP MARTHA FATHER GOD, I LIFT MARTHA'S FAMILY UP TO YOU FOR STRENGTH, PEACE, AND COMFORT IN THEIR LOSS. HELP THEM FATHER TO GET THROUGH THIS TIME OF LOSS IN JESUS NAME AMEN N AMEN. Father I give you all praise in Jesus name hallelujah, hallelujah

Thank you sister! His heart is truly broken that he missed almost the last year of her life but he knows she is in a better place now. She had her husband and Donna waiting for her at heavens gate and I can only imagine the joy she felt and is still feeling! Love you big and thank you again!
